

An Experiential Learning Program by Eagles Flight Asia

In this eye-opening teambuilding activity, participants discover how to break down barriers and improve collaboration to not only deliver on their own expectations, but to also be considerate of the equally pressing needs of others. In the midst of all the fun, participants will learn about productive collaboration, communication and results focused teamwork. As families living in a close neighborhood, participants will rush to complete their last-minute grocery shopping before tomorrow's big holiday.

The challenge, however, is that everyone in the neighborhood seems to have left their shopping to the last minute. The demands of hungry relatives coming to visit, along with limited supplies in the store and some less than ideal neighborly relationships all create a potentially stressful situation where participants are told, "Don't come home without it!"

The Outcome:

While we're big on fun, we also know that your event needs to make a real impact. Here are just a few of the things that attendees will walk away confidently able to do:

- Move from a "me" to a "we" mentality
- Operate with more ease and efficiency by fostering an environment of trust
- Align personal efforts to ensure that individual, team, and organizational goals are achieved
- Employ collaboration and widespread communication to deliver exceptional internal and external service.
