Congratulations, you have been elected to represent your nation at the inaugural meeting of the United League of Nations! You and your fellow delegates must work as a team to honor the promises made to your demanding constituents- but you are only one nation out of ten, and each nation has their own promises to keep. Within a world of diplomatic intrigue, politics, scandals, and nonstop fun, you'll have to overcome distrust, barriers, and flawed communication to make good on your commitments.

But, with the clock ticking, the Promises, Promises! experience quickly breaks down these barriers to show the importance of delivering on your priorities and those of the greater group. In the midst of all the fun, attendees learn about productive collaboration, open communication, and results-focused teamwork.
